Corporate overview:
Library Council

The Library Act 1939, as amended by the Cultural Institutions (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1989, provides that the Library Council of New South Wales shall be the governing body of the State Library of New South Wales.

The Library Council is constituted under Part 2 of the Library Act 1939. The nine members of Library Council are members of the public nominated by the Minister and appointed for a three-year term by the Governor of NSW. The Act stipulates that members must include:

• at least one person who has knowledge of, or experience in, education, and
• at least one person who has knowledge of, or experience in, local government.

The Library Council members fulfilling these requirements are Dr John Vallance and Mr Robert Knight respectively.

The State Librarian and Chief Executive is the Secretary of Library Council.

The Council's responsibilities relate to the promotion, provision and maintenance of library and information services for the people of NSW; and advising the Minister and local authorities on matters of policy and administration relating to library services.

Library Council members are appointed for a term not exceeding three years and may be reappointed, but no Council member shall hold office for four consecutive terms. Council members do not receive remuneration for their board activities.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:

One of the most important books in Australia's history, Jan Huygen van Linschoten’s Itinerario was a tremendous influence on Dutch expansion in the East and their ultimate commercial dominance. From their base in the Spice Islands, the Dutch launched the expedition to discover the mythical Great South Land (Australia) which was eventually successful in 1606.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:

Antiphonal: Common of the Saints, 1328, Illustrated by Neri da Rimini, Manuscript, Safe/ Richardson/ 273

I’m an avowed Italoophile and a passionate music lover — the Rimini Antiphonal of 1328 is one of the Library's greatest musical treasures. This large book of chants has exquisite illuminations by renowned Italian miniaturist Neri da Rimini. It was bequeathed to the Library as a tribute to Australian soldiers in WWI. Transcribed from the original by Dr Neil McEwan, the Antiphonal’s inspiring chants were magnificently performed at the Library this year by the St Laurence Gregorian Schola and Singers.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:

Midwinter, the Ship Encased in Ice, Shackleton Expedition, 1915, Frank Hurley, Photograph, PXA 715

Photographs and glass negatives by Frank Hurley — Ernest Shackleton’s photographer on his epic 1914-17 expedition to Antarctica — are for me some of the real gems in the Library’s extraordinary collection of Antarctic memorabilia. This photograph of the ice-bound, doomed Endurance is among the most powerful and poignant. It is wonderful that this collection can now be viewed online, thanks to the generosity of the Library’s private supporters.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
CHARLES DARWIN, ON THE ORIGIN OF SPECIES BY MEANS OF NATURAL SELECTION ... LONDON: JOHN MURRAY, 1859, SAFE/ RB/ 2604

Of the thousands of books in the Library, this book has had the most truly profound impact on our thinking about who we are and why we are who we are. To be able to hold the first edition of such a book is awe-inspiring.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BRIDGET GRIFFEN-FOLEY, BA (Hons), PhD
Director, Centre for Media History and ARC Queen Elizabeth II Fellow in Modern History and Politics, Macquarie University
Appointed 2003, reappointed to 31 December 2009
Chair, Fellowships Committee

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
BERLEI ‘MINK BRA’, 1962, DESOLIE HURLEY, IMPERIAL MINK CORSELET WITH SILK LINING, R 946

The Berlei mink ‘outer-wear bra’ of 1962 was one of the more intriguing acquisitions displayed to Library Council, and accorded nicely with one of my favourite manuscript items: a 1958 memo from editor Donald Horne to a Consolidated Press executive, mindful of Frank Packer’s eagle eye on petty cash, asking for more money to buy bras for magazine covergirls, and apologising for destroying ‘illusions’ about the ‘bosoms of WEEKEND girls’.

MR ROBERT KNIGHT, BA
Director, Riverina Regional Library
Appointed 2003, reappointed 1 January 2009 – 31 December 2011
Convenor, Public Libraries Consultative Committee

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
SKETCH DESIGN FOR FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY, 1883, JAMES BARNET, ARCHITECTURAL DRAWINGS, PXD 45

These sketch designs are significant in establishing the free public library culture in NSW. As well as being an iconic public building, both at the time of its design and since, the structure now known as the State Library of NSW represents the prevailing philosophy that public libraries should be freely accessible to everyone—a belief that today sees a network of 367 public library service points across NSW.

MS LYNETTE NIXON, MCom
Director, Innovation, Knowledge and Research, PricewaterhouseCoopers
Appointed 1 January 2009 – 31 December 2011

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
LETTER FROM EDWARD CLOSE TO ROBERT SCOTT, 16 NOVEMBER 1829, SCOTT FAMILY PAPERS, A 2263

This letter represents a connection between two individuals, and two artefacts, which had not been previously made. It helped solve the puzzle of the missing pages in Edward Close’s sketchbook. The Library plays a critical role in uncovering these connections, to build the story of who we are, where we come from and therefore what is possible in our future.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
MESSAGE AND BOTTLE DROPPED DURING THE FIRST FLIGHT FROM ENGLAND TO AUSTRALIA, 1919, ROSS SMITH, R 109

Having spent most of my career in the hi-tech end of communications, I find the concept of a ‘message in a bottle’ rather captivating from the point of view of simplicity and innovation. The fact that someone found the bottle is simply miraculous.

DR JOHN VALLANCE, BA, MA, PhD (CAMBRIDGE)
Headmaster, Sydney Grammar School
Appointed 1 January 2008, current term ends December 2010

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
SNUFFBOX PRESENTED BY GOVERNOR LACHLAN MACQUARIE TO MAJ OR HC ANTILL, C. 1750, PORCELAIN, R 529

This snuffbox was presented by Governor Macquarie to my great-great-great-grandfather Major Henry Colden Antill (1779–1852). Major Antill was a close friend of Macquarie and also his aide-de-camp. The box was given to the State Library in 1970 by my great uncle, the artist Frank Hinder.

FAVOURITE ITEM FROM THE COLLECTION:
GEORGE CADDY PHOTOGRAPHED WAL BALMUS HAND BALANCING ON HAZEL’S HIPS AT BONDI BEACH, 30 OCTOBER 1938, PXD 1058

A multi-tasking, physically fit woman, supporting a man, while knitting… It’s fun, tongue-in-cheek, but still direct in its message. Although taken in the late 1930s, and recently discovered, the message is timeless. It’s the story of my life in one photograph!
