Discover one of the greatest writers of all time. Visit the State Library and uncover the little-known, unexplored treasures in our extensive collection.

In this two-hour program your students will:

• explore the exquisite Shakespeare Room, built to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the poet’s death

• visit the underground stacks to see the Library’s extensive collection including Shakespearean works from Charles Dickens’ own library

• view rare objects and works from the Shakespeare collection including a model of the Globe Theatre

• enjoy a drama workshop based on As You Like It

• video their performance and take a DVD back to school.
