

English Extension 2 Seminar
Sydney, Friday 2nd November 2018 9:00am to 3:15pm

Presented by the State Library of NSW and the NSW Education Standards Authority

A combination of lectures and small group workshops will provide students with the opportunity to test their ideas and ask questions of experienced teachers, markers and librarians.

Introduction

Dr John Vallance

NSW State Librarian

Dr John Vallance first suggested the idea of word eXpress as a collaboration between the State Library of NSW and the NSW Education Standards Authority in 2012. His experience as a classical scholar teaching at Cambridge, Headmaster of Sydney Grammar and current NSW State Librarian continues to fuel his passion to see students nurture their own literary voice.

Speakers

Catriona Arcamone

Head Teacher English, Fort Street High School

Catriona Arcamone is Relieving Deputy Principal at Fort Street High School. She has regularly taught Extension 2 English almost since its inception, and has been an Extension 2 marker for a number of years. Currently she is a Senior Marker for Extension 1 English. Several of her students have been included in Young Writers Showcase – six over the last five years. Catriona presented at the word eXpress Seminar Day in 2015, 2016 and 2017, and at the Extension 2 Students and Teachers seminar held by the English Teachers Association in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Dr Felicity Plunkett

Poet, critic and editor and former Chief Examiner-English Extension 1 and 2

Felicity Plunkett is a poet, critic and editor. She has a PhD in Literature from the University of Sydney and has taught at a number of universities, gaining an Excellence in Teaching Award from the University of New England. From 2004 - 2009 she was Chief Examiner of English Extension 1 and 2. Her poetry collection, Vanishing Point, won the Arts Queensland Thomas Shapcott Award and was short-listed for several other awards. She is also the author of a chapbook Seastrands (Vagabond Press, 2011). Her new collection A Kinder Sea is published by Pitt St Poetry. Felicity is Poetry Editor with UQP and edited the collection Thirty Australian Poets (UQP, 2011).

Sessions

Creative Essentials – Dr Felicity Plunkett

This session will focus on an array of inspiring ideas and resources to support you as you create your Major Work. Offering an assemblage of possibilities, this session will include generating and exploring ideas, overcoming obstacles, building and maintaining creative energy. It will draw on research on creativity and advice drawn from the experiences of a range of professional writers and composers and cover new forms available for students to work in, and how to use your journal.

Pitfalls and the Pendulum – Catriona Arcamone

This session focuses on the course requirements, including the interconnected roles of Major Work, Reflection Statement and Journal. It equips you with the latest NESA updates, and covers time management against the ticking clock! It will also touch on the experience of students and their teachers as they navigate their way to the finished product.

Rich Resources from the State Library of NSW

Rigorous research is a requirement of the course and the State Library of NSW has extraordinary online resources to inspire, inform and enrich your research. This session will reveal the vast repository of the resources available to you in the comfort of your own home.

Why does this Work? Marking Guidelines, Strategies and Inspiration – Dr Felicity Plunkett

In this session students will have the opportunity to view award-winning student works and unpack the critical elements that contributed to its success.

Secrets to Success from those in the know

A facilitated discussion with high achieving ex-students including those featured in word eXpress Young Writers Showcase 17.

Speed Date an Expert

View the work of 2017 students and ask the experts all your burning questions. In small groups students will have the opportunity to speak to high achieving students, experienced teachers, markers and librarians.

Exploring Your Ideas

In this interactive session students will have the opportunity to talk with fellow students, test their ideas and establish a starting point for their major work.

Reflecting, Reshaping, Refining – Dr Felicity Plunkett

Ongoing reflection aids the development of creative work and this session will equip students with strategies and techniques to work towards a thoughtfully crafted Reflection Statement and productive creative reflection. If, as Steve Kowit puts it, 'the secret of writing is rewriting', using creative reflection to power your redrafting will help you refine and further your work.

