Interlibrary Lending Policy

Policy statement

The State Library of New South Wales is committed to the principles of resource sharing and cooperates with other libraries in New South Wales, across Australia and overseas in interlibrary lending.

The purpose of this policy is to outline the types of items available for loan or copy from the State Library of New South Wales to other libraries. It also describes the conditions of supply.

Definitions

Interlibrary loan - a service where one library obtains an item for a library member by borrowing from another library.

Document delivery - a service where one library obtains a copy of part of a work for a library member by requesting it from another library.

Bulk loans – a selection of multicultural and alternative format material lent to NSW public libraries.

Target audience

This policy applies to libraries. State Library of New South Wales staff also refer to this policy to determine material types suitable for loan.

Items on loan to cultural institutions for exhibitions are covered in the Guidelines & conditions for external exhibition loans.

Loans of collection items to staff are covered by the Staff Loans Policy.

Operational requirements

The State Library of New South Wales supports the National & State Libraries Australasia Collaborative Lending Principals and follows the Australian Interlibrary Resource Sharing (ILRS) Code in the administration of this policy.

| Conditions of supply        | • NSW public libraries may allow their members to take loaned items home unless otherwise specified.
                                • All other libraries must ensure items loaned from the State Library are used within their library.
                                • The loan of an item is at the discretion of the State Library.
                                • The physical condition of an item may affect the availability for a loan or copy. |
| Items available for loan     | • Books published after 1960 from the State Reference Library collection.
                                • Audiovisual materials including video or DVD to NSW public libraries only.
                                • Bulk loans of community language and ESL material to NSW public libraries only. See section on Multicultural bulk loans below. |
| Items not available for loan | • Books published before 1960.
                                • Mitchell and Dixson Library collections.
                                • Large print and talking books are no longer available for loan directly from the State Library. These collections are on long term loan to NSW public libraries, and requests to borrow may be made with the holding Library. See the State Library of NSW catalogue for location details.
                                • Special Collections including original material and rare books, legal deposit items, reference collection items, microfilms and microfiche.
                                • Serials in all formats including journals, newspapers, annual reports, loose leaf publications and yearbooks.
                                • Library material that is considered vulnerable for preservation or security reasons, e.g. 16mm film.
                                • Library material in high demand by onsite readers.
                                If not available for loan, it may be possible to order a copy [6]. |
| Period of loan               | The standard loan period for all libraries is eight (8) weeks with no renewal.
                                Multicultural bulk loans – see section below. |
| Loan fees                    | • The State Library applies the standard fees and charges as outlined in the Australian Interlibrary Resource Sharing (ILRS) Code
                                • Core requests for loans are supplied free of charge to New South Wales public libraries. It is expected that no charges will be made for library material of this nature. |
Replacement costs

| be passed on to the public for access to these items.
| The borrowing library is advised prior to supply if the fee exceeds the standard service charge.
| The borrowing library is responsible for maintaining the condition of items borrowed from the State Library.
| The borrowing library is required to notify the State Library as soon as possible if an item has been lost or damaged.
| A standard replacement cost will be charged for a lost or damaged item:

| Monograph material: $120.00 + GST, per title
| Films including videos, DVDs: $120.00 + GST, per title
| Multicultural collection items: $45.00 + GST, per title |

Multicultural bulk loans

The State Library has collections of books in 42 community languages, which can be borrowed by New South Wales public libraries on behalf of library members. English as a Second Language (ESL) items can also be requested.

New South Wales Public Libraries can access the service in two ways:

- libraries who borrow from the community language collections heavily can have a large loan from a language for 12 months (up to 300 items depending on which language)
- requests for bulk loans can be placed using the multicultural bulk loan request form on an 'as needed' basis. Libraries can request ten, twenty or thirty items for a loan period of three or six months.

English large print and talking books have been distributed to NSW public libraries on long term loan.

New South Wales Public Libraries can manage their bulk loans through the Library website [8].
