Access & Inclusion

It is the Library’s intention that everyone feels equally welcomed and can access with dignity the information or service they are interested in. Any feedback or suggestions as to how the Library can be more inclusive is welcome and can be submitted using the Library’s feedback form.

Plan your visit[1]

Everything you need to know to plan your day at the Library.
Access at the Library [2]

You can find out more about getting to the Library reading rooms, accessible toilets, wheelchairs, tours, phones, hearing loops and using Library's collections here.

Access & Inclusion News [3]

Latest happenings in the Library relating to Access & Inclusion
Inclusion Advisory Committee [4]

The Inclusion Advisory Committee meets quarterly and provides formal advice to the Library to go beyond compliance in providing accessible facilities and inclusive services.
Adaptive Technology

We have dedicated computers with adaptive technology in the Governor Marie Bashir Reading Room on Lower Ground 1.
Accessible Events

Find out more about Accessible Events in the Library.
Accessibility Guide

We have developed the Accessibility Guide to provide you with information about how people with disabilities can access the Library and services.
This plan contributes to the Library’s objective to facilitate and enable full and active participation and access to collections, services, programs and public and work spaces by people with disability.
Source URL: https://www.sl.nsw.gov.au/about-library/access-inclusion

Links