Indigenous spaces in library places

The contents of this toolkit were written on Gadigal Land.

'We acknowledge them as Traditional Custodians and we pay our respects to their Elders past and present'.

Welcome to the online toolkit for Indigenous Spaces in Library Places

The strategy Indigenous Spaces In Library Places: Building a Vibrant Public Library Network Inclusive of Indigenous Peoples and Communities [1] has been developed by the Library to provide guidance to the public library network, as a part of our ongoing commitment to enhancing services dedicated to the local Indigenous population. The toolkit contains helpful tips, guidelines and templates that can be downloaded from the website.

To get started, watch the video and select your Strategy Objective [2].

Share your stories with us

We welcome feedback [3] from the public library network and look forward to sharing your stories through our blog [4].
Indigenous Spaces in Library Places [5]

Video of Indigenous Spaces in Library Places

Choose your strategy objective

Welcome

[6]
Reach
Overview
Other resources for your library

Download Resources
Indigenous spaces in library places

Published on State Library of NSW (https://www.sl.nsw.gov.au)

---

Share your stories

---
Our Protocols