Multicultural services for public libraries

The Library’s Public Library Services branch provides a range of services and resources to assist public libraries with multicultural services to their culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities.

Multicultural services overview [1]

Information about the range of services available to public libraries for their communities.

Consultancy [2]

Information about statewide consultancy and specialist advice and support on delivering library services to culturally and linguistically diverse communities.
Your multicultural community [3]
Resources to understand your multicultural community
Tools and promotional resources

Tools and resources for public libraries to provide and promote multicultural services to their communities.
Tech Savvy Seniors  [5]

Information about Tech Savvy Seniors for NSW public libraries
Bulk loan service [6]

Find information about the State Library bulk loan service for NSW public libraries.
Standards and guidelines

Find information about standards and guidelines that specifically refer to the provision of services for multicultural communities.
Multicultural services for public libraries
Published on State Library of NSW (https://www.sl.nsw.gov.au)

Links