View of a river landscape with five cut out pasted down drawings of five standing Aborigines, ca. 1818

A grangerised volume of James Wallis' 'An Historical account of the colony of New South Wales...'. London: Printed For R. Ackermann, Repository Of Arts, Strand, by J. Moyes, Greville Street, 1821. It includes original drawings, watercolours, and collages by James Wallis and Joseph Lycett including views, portraits of Aboriginal people, botanical, and natural history illustrations.

Call Number:
SAFE / PXE 1072 [1]

Links