INDIGENOUS SPACES IN LIBRARY PLACES

Building a vibrant public library network inclusive of Indigenous peoples and communities

A strategy to provide Indigenous services across the public library network

REACH
Build the profile of the NSW public library network in relation to Indigenous services
Inspire collaborative relationships across the public library network to share information on Indigenous services

WELCOME
Create welcoming and trusted environments for Indigenous peoples in library spaces
Encourage the public library network to support, share and engage with Indigenous peoples in their local area

SUPPORT
Develop strategies to include and support Indigenous Australian employment across the public library network
Share stories and build knowledge of local Indigenous history and culture

SHARE
Build vibrant collections and services that are shaped by Indigenous needs and aspirations

INCLUDE
Create welcoming and trusted environments for Indigenous peoples in library spaces

BUILD
A strategy to provide Indigenous services across the public library network

COLLABORATE

INDIGENOUS SERVICES

STATE LIBRARY OF NEW SOUTH WALES

P&D-4730-4/2016