

Indyreads: fact sheet for public libraries

What is indyreads?

Indyreads is a local eContent management platform, provided by the State Library of NSW via NSW public libraries. This platform enables public libraries to provide free access to eBooks and eAudio.

The aim of indyreads is to ensure that NSW public libraries can offer their clients a diverse collection of quality Australian and overseas published works.

What content is available on indyreads?

- Over 10,000 titles
- eBooks and eAudio
- Australian content
- Independent Australian and international publishers
- Languages other than English
- Award winners, eg Nobel, Man Booker, Miles Franklin, Pulitzer prizes
- Classic fiction, modern classics, new editions of classics
- Library professional publications
- CSIRO publications
- Local studies
- Self-published material
- Perpetual access
- Free for public libraries

Where can I find more information about indyreads?

Find more information, FAQs, promotional material and training at:
www.sl.nsw.gov.au/public-library-services/services/indyreads

How can indyreads be used?

Use the indyreads browser to browse the collection, login to your account, borrow and read/listen to titles, manage loans and reservations, create reading lists and favourites, and make suggestions for purchase.

Download the app from the App Store or Google Play to use on your phone or tablet.

Find links to the browser and apps, images to use on your website, and user guides at:
www.sl.nsw.gov.au/public-library-services/services/indyreads

What is in the future for indyreads?

- Phase 1 to be completed in 2020 - all libraries configured and able to use indyreads
- Phase 2 to be completed in 2021 - libraries will be able to add their own local studies collections
- Phase 3 to be completed in 2021 - libraries will be able to add community content, eg local writers