NSW SENIORS FESTIVAL SPECIAL EVENT: HERBALS & FLOWER BOOKS

Date: 13 April
Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm
Venue: Meet in the Macquarie Street foyer
Cost: Free (bookings essential)

Medicinal herbs were valued by the ancient Greeks and are still used today. The 16th and 17th centuries produced many herbals – illustrated printed books that were the precursor to the modern botanical and pharmaceutical textbooks. Flower books came to prominence in the 18th and 19th centuries with significant works by Redoute, Bauer, Hooker, Sowerby, Sweet and Thornton. Learn about and view some of the Library's original and facsimile editions of these beautifully illustrated books.

JOHN GOULD: THE BIRD MAN

Date: 21 June
Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm
Venue: Meet in the Macquarie Street foyer
Cost: $15 + booking fee (bookings essential)

John Gould was a British ornithologist and artist. It is estimated that over half a million individual hand-coloured plates of birds and animals were produced under the Gould name. This extraordinary output was the result of Gould's drive and business acumen as well as his ability to develop a strong international group of specimen collectors, artists and administrative agents. Hear about Gould's life and work and see some of his publications from the Library's rare books collection.

RARE BOOKS: ASTRONOMY

Date: 19 September
Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm
Venue: Meet in the Macquarie Street foyer
Cost: $15 + booking fee (bookings essential)

Astronomy and its field of study was changed significantly by the invention of printing and many ancient and medieval astronomical texts were published before the close of the 15th century. Using the new technology of printing also allowed for the development and production of celestial globes. Hear about this fascinating subject and see beautiful items from the Library rare books collection, including an 18th century celestial globe.

MEDICAL SYDNEY

Date: 15 November
Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm
Venue: Meet in the Macquarie Street foyer
Cost: $15 + booking fee (bookings essential)

Take a medical history tour of Sydney from the First Fleet to the beginnings of the twentieth century. Discover the secrets of Western medicine in the early colony and history of the medical profession in Sydney. Resources include surgeons' journals, manuscripts written by early Sydney doctors, and rare books featuring anatomical drawings and histories of diseases like the Bubonic Plague. Uncover medical scandals as we reveal the mysteries behind the medicine. This talk is not for the faint hearted!

CHRISTMAS IN THE COLLECTIONS

Date: 5 December
Time: 10:30 am to 12:30 pm
Venue: Meet in the Macquarie Street foyer
Cost: $15 + booking fee (bookings essential)

Join us for a festive show-and-tell to discover how Christmas has been celebrated in Australia and internationally from colonial times up to the present day. From sober Victorian depictions of the Nativity to the pop Santa of the 60s and beyond, explore Christmas celebrations using examples of original cards, books, magazines, newspapers and more held in the Library's rich collections.
