

Activity 4: Processing geographical information – Features and activities on Australian beaches

Use the information in Table 1 to find the answers to the questions. Write a sentence to answer each question.

What are the natural features of beaches?

What are the human features that have been built?

What activities do people do at beaches?